

Spring is here!

“Spring is nature’s way of saying, “Let’s Party!”

The Spring Season Assembly by Nursery Children was an enchanting event that took place on 14th February 2024, to celebrate the arrival of spring. The assembly showcased the talents and creativity of our young learners.

The overarching theme of the assembly was the celebration of spring and all its wonders. It aimed to educate, entertain, and engage the audience through various performances and presentations.

Program Highlights:

Welcome Address:

The assembly commenced with a warm welcome by the nursery children. Dressed in vibrant spring colours, they greeted the audience with enthusiasm, setting a cheerful tone for the event.

Winter to Spring:

The highlight of the assembly was a delightful presentation on the transition of animals from winter hibernation to the pleasant embrace of spring. Through engaging storytelling, the children showcased how animals emerge from their cozy winter slumber to frolic in the rejuvenated landscapes of springtime.

Spring Songs and Rhymes:

The children presented a medley of spring rhymes, accompanied by lively dance movements – “Spring is here” the performance was filled with joy and innocence, capturing the essence of the season.

Emphasizing No Plucking Flowers:

The nursery class emphasized the importance of respecting nature by refraining from plucking flowers. Through interactive activities and gentle reminders, the children encouraged everyone to admire the beauty of blossoms in their natural habitat.

Understanding Seasonal Changes of Earth and Sun:

In the next segment, the nursery class explored the fascinating dynamics of seasonal changes on Earth, depicting how the tilt of the Earth's axis affects the intensity of sunlight and the arrival of spring. Through simple yet engaging explanations, the young learners deepened their understanding of the Earth's relationship with the sun, making science come alive.

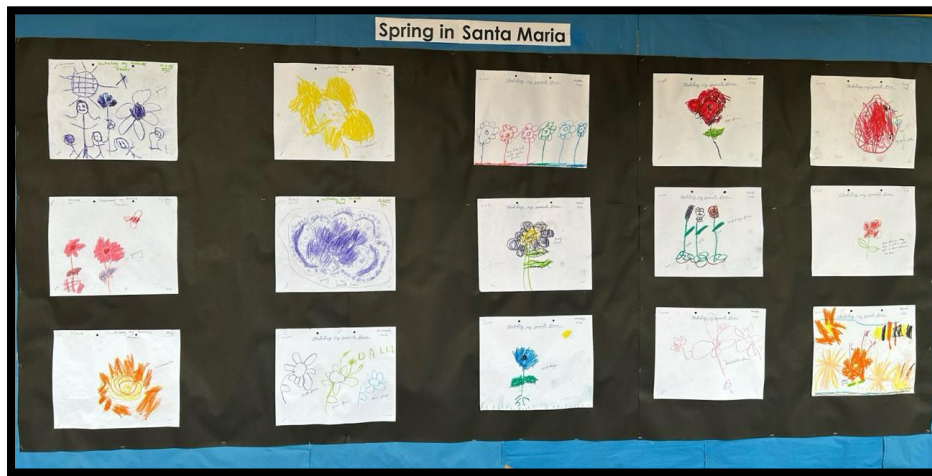

Vasant Panchami Festival Dance:

The assembly culminated with a mesmerizing dance performance celebrating the festival of Vasant Panchami. Adorned in yellow attire, the nursery class swayed gracefully to traditional tunes of Uttarakhand, depicting the joy and vibrancy of the spring season.

In conclusion, the Spring Season Assembly by the Nursery Class was a delightful celebration of nature's awakening and the myriad wonders of spring. Through creative presentations and heartfelt performances, the young children instilled a profound appreciation for the beauty and significance of this enchanting season.

Children have been exploring the school garden to look for the flowers of the season. All flowers have been labelled for children to get familiar with their names. Every child got a chance to sit next to his / her favourite flower and illustrate it.

Warm regards
